CHAPTER IV HOLDING OF THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Part I

Attendance and Proxies

Section 11. Right to attend

1. Shareholders who have their shares registered in their name in the book entry register at least five days prior to the date set for the meeting, and who keep them until the Meeting is held and are up to date in the payment of calls on unpaid capital are eligible to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, regardless of the number of shares they hold.
2. To exercise their right to attend, shareholders must previously be authorized through the relevant attendance card issued in their name wherein the number and the class of the shares held, as well as the number of votes they may cast shall be stated. The card shall be issued to those holders that evidence that their shares have been registered in the book entry register prior to the date stated in the first paragraph of this subsection.
3. Members of the Board of Directors must attend the General Meetings of Shareholders, preferably in person, except where justified reasons advise otherwise, or a virtual-only meeting is held, in which case, they may attend remotely.
4. The Chair of the General Meeting may authorize any other person that he/she may deem fit to attend the General Meeting, in person or remotely, if this attendance system has been provided for.

Section 11. Bis Remote attendance

1. Shareholders with a right to attend the General Meeting pursuant to the provisions of Section 11, or their designated proxy holder pursuant to the provisions of Section 12, may do so remotely by means that allow them to be connected in real time with the site or sites where the meeting is being held, provided that the state of the art allows it and the Board of Directors so resolves at the time of the notice. In any case, the Board of Directors will indicate in the notice the best means to guarantee the required security conditions, the identification of the shareholders, the proper exercise of their rights and the appropriate conduct of the meeting.
2. Remote attendance by shareholders or their proxy holders will be considered for all purposes to be the same as attending the General Meeting in person. Therefore, the same rules on voting and approval of resolutions contained in the Articles of Association and in these Regulations regarding shareholders or proxy holders who attend in person will apply, and they will be considered present for the calculation of the corresponding quorums.
3. Remote attendance at the General Meeting will be subject to the following rules, which can be developed upon and supplemented by the Board of Directors:
 - (a) The notice will detail the procedure for shareholders or their proxy holders wishing to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders to proceed with their pre-registration, as well as the cut-off time prior to the expected start of the meeting by which the connection must have been established on the day of the meeting. Remote access to the General Meeting of Shareholders will not be permitted after the aforementioned cut-off time.
 - (b) Any shareholder or proxy holder wishing to remotely attend the General Meeting must identify themselves by means of a digital certificate or similar type of identification that reliably guarantees his or her identity, under the terms established by the Board of Directors.
 - (c) The Board of Directors will determine and announce in the notice calling the meeting the time frames, forms and means for exercising shareholder rights to enable the proper conduct of the meeting.
 - (d) In the event that due to technical circumstances not attributable to the Company, or due to security reasons arising from unexpected circumstances, it is not possible to attend the meeting through the established remote means, or if during the meeting there is a temporary or definitive interruption of the meeting, this circumstance cannot be invoked as an illegal deprivation of the rights of the shareholder or as a ground for contesting the resolutions adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Section 12. Proxy Representation at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Any shareholder who has the right to attend may be represented at the General Meeting of Shareholders by a proxy holder, whether or not a shareholder. Proxies shall be granted in writing and especially for each General Meeting of Shareholders. Said requirement shall not apply when the proxy holder is the spouse, ascendant or descendant of the represented person, nor when the proxy holder has a general power of attorney conferred by public document with powers to administer all the estate that the represented person has on national territory.

No shareholder may be represented at a General Meeting by more than one proxy holder, except in such cases involving intermediary entities qualifying as shareholders by virtue of the book entry system, but which act on behalf of different beneficial owners; such entities may grant proxy to any of the beneficial owners or to any third party appointed by these latter. In such cases, the number of proxies granted cannot be restricted.

2. Proxies may be granted by postal or electronic mail, or by any other means of distance communication, provided that the identity of the participating individual and the security of distance communications is ensured, and in such case, the provisions of section 25 of these Regulations regarding the casting of votes by such means shall apply, provided that it is not incompatible with the nature of proxy.
3. Proxies shall be included in the list of attendees. The Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders may ask the proxy holder to provide the documentation that proves the nature of its representation. The Company shall keep a record of those documents containing the proxies granted.
4. Proxies can always be revoked. The attendance of the proxy grantor at the General Meeting of Shareholders, either in person or remotely or having cast absentee vote by distance communication systems, shall have the effect of a revocation, regardless of the date on which the proxy was granted.
5. Prior to granting proxy, the proxy holder shall provide the shareholder with detailed information about the existence of any conflict of interest situation. Should a conflict of interest situation occur after the proxy has been granted, and the represented shareholder has not been warned thereof, the proxy holder shall forthwith inform the latter of such conflict. In both cases, and in the absence, having previously been informed of the conflict of interest situation, of any new and accurate voting instructions regarding each agenda item on which the proxy holder shall cast a vote on behalf of the shareholder, the proxy holder shall abstain from voting, without prejudice to the provisions of the following paragraph.
6. Unless otherwise expressly stated by the shareholder, should the proxy holder be involved in a conflict of interest situation without having accurate voting instructions, or, even if he has them, he/she would deem it best not to represent the proxy grantor with regard to the items to which the conflict of interest refers, it shall be assumed that the proxy grantor has appointed as proxy holders, regarding such items, jointly and severally, and in succession, should any of them be involved in a conflict of interest situation, first, the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders, next the Secretary of the General Meeting of Shareholders and last, the Capital Markets Director of the Company. The proxy holder so appointed shall cast his/her vote in the manner that view best suits the interests of the proxy grantor, considering the interest of the Company.
7. If no instructions regarding the vote on proposals of the agenda were given, it shall be understood that the proxy grantor shall vote for the proposals in question. If no instructions regarding the vote on proposals not included on the agenda were given, it shall be understood that the proxy grantor shall vote in the manner that in his/her view best suits the interests of the proxy grantor, considering the interest of the Company.

8. Where the document containing the proxy is submitted to the Company without expressly stating the name or company name of the proxy holder, it shall be assumed that the proxy grantor has appointed as proxy holders, jointly and severally and in succession, should any of them be involved, in turn, in a conflict of interest situation, first, the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders, next the Secretary of the General Meeting of Shareholders and last, the Capital Markets Director of the Company.

Section 13. Proxy solicitation

The rules laid down in the applicable regulations governing companies shall apply to the proxy solicitations made by the Board of Directors, the entities in charge of the book-entries registry, or any other person or public entity, being these proxies either for themselves or for others. In particular, the document containing the proxy shall state or have attached the agenda and the request for instructions in order to exercise the voting rights and the mention on the way the proxy holder shall vote in case he/she is not given accurate instructions. If the proxy solicitation is made by the Board of Directors, and no instructions are given to the proxy holder, the vote will be understood to be for the proposal submitted by the Board of Directors, within the legal limitations provided by the regulations in force.

Where any members of the governing body of the Company, or any other person acting on behalf or in the interest of any of them should have resorted to any public solicitation of proxies, the director who has obtained such proxy shall not exercise the voting right corresponding to the represented shares regarding those items on the agenda in respect of which such director is involved in any conflict of interest situation, unless he/she would have received from the proxy grantor accurate voting instructions for each of such items.

Section 14. Attendance, proxy-granting and absentee voting card

1. Attendance, proxy granting and absentee voting cards shall be issued in the name of the shareholders at the behest of the Company, either directly or through entities in charge of book-entry registers, and they may be used by shareholders as a document to grant proxy for the specific General Meeting of Shareholders in question.
2. For such purposes, the Company may make available to the above referred entities the format of the attendance, proxy-granting and absentee voting card, ensuring that the cards issued by such entities are uniform and include a bar code or other system that allows the reading thereof by electronic means in order to facilitate the electronic calculation of attendees to the meeting and the formula to which such document must adhere to grant proxy at the meeting.

Section 15. Organization of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. For the purposes of ensuring the safety of the people attending in person the General Meeting of Shareholders and the orderly conduct thereof, such protection, surveillance and safety measures as are deemed appropriate shall be taken.

2. Should the meeting have to be held in separate rooms, for whatever reasons, the necessary audio and/or recording video equipment shall be provided in order to allow real time interactivity and intercommunication between the rooms, and, accordingly, unity of action.
3. The Company shall ensure that all the necessary measures are taken in order to allow shareholders and/or their proxy holders with reduced mobility access to the room where the General Meeting of Shareholders is being held, as the case may be.
4. The proceedings of the General Meeting of Shareholders may be subject to audiovisual recording, if so determined by the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders. They may also be subject to storage and live or recorded broadcast by any means, including over the internet. Entering the premises where the General Meeting of Shareholders is to be held entails the consent of the shareholders or their proxy holders to the capture of their image (including voice) and the processing of their personal data. The owner of the data shall have the rights of access, rectification, objection, or cancellation of the data gathered by the Company, upon the terms provided by statute, by sending a letter to the Company at its registered office, to the attention of the General Counsel's Office.
5. The Company may provide or make available to shareholders information to facilitate their following the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Part II

Establishment of a quorum for the General Meeting of Shareholders

Section 16. The General Meeting

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be validly established on first call when shareholders who are present or represented by proxy hold at least fifty (50) percent of the subscribed share capital with the right to vote. On second call, generally, the General Meeting shall be validly established regardless of the share capital attending same. However, if the General Meeting of Shareholders is called to decide on an increase or a reduction in the share capital, the issue of bonds convertible into Company's shares or which entitle bondholders to participate in the company's earnings, the exclusion or restriction of the pre-emptive right, the transformation of the Company, the merger by establishment of a new company or by absorption of the Company by another entity, its spin-off in whole or in part, the global assignment of assets and liabilities, the transfer of the registered address abroad, the substitution of the company objects as well as any other amendment whatsoever of the Articles of Association, the attendance of twenty-five (25) percent of the subscribed share capital with the right to vote shall be required on second call.

Section 17. Panel of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Panel of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be made up of its Chair and its Secretary, and of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company attending the meeting, in person or remotely.

2. The meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, in his absence, by the Deputy Chairman of the Board of Directors, or in his absence by the shareholder appointed by the General Meeting.
3. The Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Company shall act as Secretary of the General Meeting and in the event of absence, impossibility to perform his duties or vacancy, he shall be replaced by the Deputy Secretary of the Board of Directors, should there be one, and in his absence, by the person, whether or not a shareholder, that the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall appoint.
4. Should the Chair or the Secretary of the General Meeting have to leave the meeting, for whatever reasons, they shall be substituted in the performance of their duties as stated in the paragraphs above.
5. The Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders may seek the assistance of anyone he/she may deem fit.

Section 18. Proceedings of the General Meeting of Shareholders

It is incumbent on the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders to declare the meeting validly established; to direct and fix the order of the discussions and questions and speeches, as well as to limit the time given to them under the terms of these Regulations; to put an end to the debates where he considers the matter to have been sufficiently discussed and submit the motions to vote; to clear up those doubts raised on the agenda and, in general, to exercise all powers required to improve the proceedings of the meeting, including the construction of the provisions of the Regulations.

Section 19. Quorum

1. On the day and place set for the General Meeting of Shareholders to be held, either on first or second call, and at least one hour before the time set for the beginning of the session (unless otherwise specified on the notice) shareholders and their proxy holders attending in person may present to the staff in charge of the registration of shareholders their respective attendance and, where appropriate, proxy granting cards. Attendance cards and proxy granting cards of shareholders presented to the staff in charge of the registration of shareholders after the estimated time for the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall not be accepted.

Shareholders or proxy holders remotely attending the General Meeting shall connect to the remote attendance platform made available to them as early as indicated in the notice with regard to the time the General Meeting is scheduled to commence.

Registration of shareholders present and represented attending in person shall be carried out through optical reading systems or any other technical means considered appropriate. Once the process of registering the attendance in person and proxy cards physically handled has been completed, the remote access' cut-off deadline has expired, as the case may be, and a quorum has been deemed to be present, the Panel of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be established and a list of attendees shall be drawn up. This shall be contained in an electronic format, the sealed cover of which shall show the appropriate identification procedure signed by the Secretary of the General Meeting of Shareholders with the approval of the Chair.

2. Shareholders and their proxy holders arriving late to the place where the General Meeting of Shareholders is being held, once the admission of the attendance cards and proxy-granting cards has been closed, or that access the meeting remotely after the remote access cut-off time, may attend the meeting as invitees (in the same room where it is being held or, if the Panel considers it appropriate in order to avoid confusions during the General Meeting, in an adjacent room from where they can follow it) but they shall not be included in the list of attendees, nor shall those shareholders who granted them proxy.
3. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall begin, at the day, time and, if appropriate, venue set, either on first or second call, once the Panel is established and the list of attendees prepared.

Subsequently, the Chair or the Secretary shall read the global information resulting from the list of attendees, stating the number of shareholders present and represented who attend the meeting, the number of shares corresponding to each group and the percentage of the share capital they represent, stating the share capital of those shareholders with voting rights. Shareholders who have exercised their right to remote voting shall be included in the list of attendees as shareholders present.

Once the Chair or the Secretary have disclosed these data, the Chair shall declare the General Meeting of Shareholders to have the necessary quorum, on first or on second call, as appropriate.

4. Once the quorum of the General Meeting of Shareholders has been declared, the Chair shall give the floor to the Notary, so that he would ask the attendees for any cautions or protest regarding the disclosed data of attendance and valid quorum of the General Meeting of Shareholders, stating that those who would wish to raise said cautions or protests should do so directly to the Notary in order to be put on record in the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or via the systems implemented for such purposes, with regard to remote attendees.
5. Absences occurring after the quorum of the General Meeting of Shareholders has been declared, shall not affect the validity of the Meeting (neither its deferrals, if any). Notwithstanding this, those shareholders or proxy holders wishing their absence to be taken into account for the pertinent purposes, must expressly record said absence with the Notary or use the implemented means to this end if they are attending the meeting remotely.

Part III

Use of the floor by Shareholders

Section 20. Requests by shareholders to take the floor. Identification.

Once the quorum of the General Meeting of Shareholders has been declared, the Chair shall invite those shareholders who, in the exercise of their right, wish to put forward proposals, make statements or exercise their right to information, to identify themselves before the Notary or, where appropriate, before the staff assisting him, stating their name and surname, the number of shares held or, where appropriate, the number of shares they represent. If they want their speech to be included verbatim in the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, they shall hand it in writing to the Notary, at that time, in order to allow the Notary to proceed to its verification when the shareholder is taking the floor and subsequent addition to the master copy of the minutes. The Board of Directors may resolve in the notice that the interventions and proposed resolutions that those who are to attend remotely intend to make be sent to the Company prior to the declaration of the quorum of the General Meeting of Shareholders. In this case, the shareholders wishing their intervention to be recorded in the Minutes of the Meeting must expressly indicate this in the text of the Meeting. Unless any of the circumstances of refusal provided for in the Law, the Articles of Association or these Regulations apply, replies to those shareholders who attend the General Meeting of Shareholders remotely and who exercise their right to information during the course of the meeting shall be made in writing within seven days following the holding of the General Meeting of Shareholders, without prejudice to the possibility of doing so during the course of the meeting. Prior to the voting of the items on the agenda, and after the Chairperson or where appropriate, any member of the Board of Directors have put forward their reports to the attendees, the list of shareholders wishing to take the floor shall be provided to the Panel and the Chair shall open the floor to the shareholders.

Section 21. Use of the floor by shareholders

1. The use of the floor by shareholders attending in person shall follow the order established for this purpose by the Panel. Shareholders shall have an initial maximum five-minute time, without prejudice to the Chair's power to restrict or extend said time which shall be referred to the items on the agenda, unless otherwise provided by statute. Notwithstanding the above, whenever the number of requests to take the floor or any other circumstance so advises, the Chair may fix a maximum time of less than five minutes, with due regard in each case to the equal treatment and non-discrimination in respect of the shareholders that take the floor. Addresses made by shareholders remotely attending will be read, as the case may be, either by the Chair, or on their instructions, by the Secretary.
2. While they take the floor, shareholders may request verbally such reports or clarifications as they may deem necessary on the items on the agenda, the information available to the public that the Company would have furnished to the CNMV from the date the last General Meeting of Shareholders was held, and on the auditors' report.

The requested information or clarification shall be furnished to the shareholder by the Chair or, where appropriate, and following the latter's indications, by the Chair of the Audit and Compliance Committee, the Secretary, any director or, where appropriate, any employee or expert on the subject, unless any of the circumstances envisaged under Section 10.3 above should occur (if so, the provisions thereof shall prevail) or unless the requested information is not available in the course of the General Meeting of Shareholders itself; in such case, said information shall be provided within the shortest period of time following the date on which the General Meeting of Shareholders was held and at any rate in compliance with the maximum term legally provided for said purpose.

The violation of the right to receive information hereunder provided shall only entitle shareholders to demand compliance with the obligation to provide information and the damages they might have incur, but shall not be grounds for challenging the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Without prejudice to the possibility of submitting proposed resolutions, pursuant to the provisions of Section 8.3, shareholders may, while the floor is given, submit proposed resolutions to the General Meeting of Shareholders about those matters that the General Meeting can discuss even though they are not included on the agenda.

Section 22. Powers of the Chair regarding use of the floor by shareholders

In the exercise of his/her powers to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders, and without prejudice to other acts, the Chair may:

- (a) Announce to those who have the floor that their turn to speak is ending so that they may adjust their speeches to the given time; being also entitled to extend, whenever he/she deems it necessary, the time initially allocated to each speaker;
- (b) Request the speakers to clarify those issues that have not been sufficiently explained during the speech;
- (c) Moderate the speeches and questions by shareholders, urging them to stick to the items on the agenda and act properly, calling them to order when their speeches are clearly obstructionist or impair the normal course of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- (d) Withdraw the right to the floor to shareholders when they have run out of the time allocated to them or when they persist in the behavior described under subparagraph (c) above;
- (e) Order those shareholders who have repeatedly ignored his/her summons or disturbed the peace, to leave the room and, where appropriate, take the necessary measures in order to enforce this provision.

Part IV

Voting and documentation of resolutions

Section 23. Voting of the proposed resolutions

1. Once the time reserved for Q&A is over and answers have been given in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, the proposed resolutions regarding agenda items or those brought about by shareholders in the course of the meeting, which are not legally required to be included on the agenda, shall be put to vote.
2. Those matters which are essentially independent shall be put to an independent vote. At any rate, even though they might be included in the same agenda item, the following issues shall be put to an independent vote: (i) the appointment, ratification, re-election or removal of each director; (ii) regarding the amendment of the Articles of Association, the amendment of each article or group of articles which are essentially independent; and (iii) those other matters to which this provision applies pursuant to the Articles of Association.

3. Should any proposals regarding non-agenda items and on which the General Meeting of Shareholders can resolve have been raised, the Chair shall decide the order in which they shall be put to vote. In the absence thereof, the voting of the proposals shall follow the agenda established to this effect.
4. The Secretary need not read out in advance the full text of the proposed resolutions which were made available to the shareholders on the Company's website as of the date the notice calling the General Meeting of Shareholders was published, pursuant to the provisions of Section 9. At any rate, the Secretary shall mention to the attendees which proposed resolution must be voted at each time, and shall summarize the essential contents of those resolutions which have not been entirely read out in advance.
5. Where alternative proposed resolutions to those submitted by the Board of Directors regarding agenda items had been put forward, the proposals made by the Board of Directors shall be put to vote first and then, where appropriate, those proposed by other speakers in chronological order, according to the moment in which they have been submitted.
6. Upon passing of a resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the remaining proposals regarding the same item on the agenda, and which are incompatible with the passed resolution shall become automatically void and shall not be put to vote.
7. As a general rule and without prejudice to the use of other alternative systems the Chair might deem necessary where circumstances so require, voting on the proposed resolutions shall be performed according to the following procedure:
 - (a) When the voting is on proposed resolutions regarding agenda items, the votes of the shares present and represented shall be deemed votes for the motion, after subtracting the votes pertaining to (a) those shares whose holders or proxy holders state that they vote against, in blank or that they abstain, by informing the Notary of their votes or abstention to the to be put on record; (b) those shares whose holders have voted against, in blank or had expressly stated their abstention through any of the communication means referred to in these Regulations, and (c) those shares whose holders or proxy holders have left the meeting prior to the voting of the proposed resolution in question, and their leave has been put on record by the Notary, in the form provided in Section 19.5 of these Regulations.
 - (b) When the voting is on proposed resolutions regarding non-agenda items, the votes of the shares present and represented shall be deemed against the motion, after subtracting the votes pertaining to (a) those shares whose holders or proxy holders state that they vote for, in blank or that they abstain, by informing the Notary of their votes or abstention to the to be put on record; (b) those shares whose holders have voted for, in blank or have expressly stated their abstention through any of the communication means referred to in these Regulations, and (c) those shares whose holders or proxy holders have left the meeting prior to the voting of the proposed resolution in question, and their leave has been put on record by the Notary, in the form provided in Section 19.5 of these Regulations.
8. Where a proxy holder represents different shareholders, he may cast votes differently based upon the instructions received from each shareholder. Likewise, intermediary entities referred to in Section 12.1 above, which qualify as shareholders but which act on behalf of different clients, may at any rate split their vote and cast a dissenting vote pursuant to different voting instructions from such clients, should they have received them.

Section 24. Absentee voting. Powers to conduct proxies and cast absentee vote

1. Shareholders with a right to attend and vote may vote on the proposals concerning agenda items by post, or by any electronic communication means whenever the Board of Directors, bearing in mind the state of the art and the available means, so decides in a resolution passed for such purposes, expressly stating so in the notice calling the General Meeting of Shareholders in question, effective for all subsequent General Meeting of Shareholders, without having to repeat it, after considering that there are enough guarantees to secure the identification of shareholders who exercise their right to vote, and the certainty and authenticity of the will expressed.
2. Votes cast by post shall be sent to the Company together with the attendance card duly signed under hand.
3. Votes cast by electronic communication means shall have a recognized electronic signature or such other guarantees as the Company may deem fit to ensure the authenticity and the identity of the shareholders who exercise their right to vote.
4. Absentee votes cast by either of the above-referred means shall be received in the Company before the twenty-four (24) hours of the second working day (Saturdays excluded) immediately prior to the day set for the General Meeting of Shareholders. Otherwise, vote shall be deemed not to have been cast. Votes cast in accordance with such provisions shall be deemed valid, except in case of fortuitous event or force majeure preventing their reception or correct identification.
5. The Board of Directors is entitled to develop the foregoing provisions by setting the rules, means and procedures suitable for the state of the art in order to implement the casting of votes and the granting of proxy by electronic communication means, by enforcing where appropriate the rules for this purpose enacted.
6. Namely, the Board of Directors may (i) rule the use of alternative guarantees to the electronic signature regarding the casting of electronic vote pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 3 above, (ii) reduce the time limit established under paragraph 4 above for the Company to receive votes cast by post or by e-mail, and (iii) establish other means of distance communication or otherwise, suitable for the state of the art to implement the casting of votes, provided that the identity of the individual exercising their right to vote is properly guaranteed.

At any rate, the Board of Directors shall pass the necessary resolutions to avoid potential duplicities and ensure that those shareholders who have cast their vote through distance communication systems or granted proxy by postal or electronic mail are duly entitled to do so pursuant to the provisions of the Articles of Association and of these Regulations of the General Meeting.

The implementing regulations that the Board of Directors may adopt pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph shall be published on the Company's website.

7. Shareholders with a right to attend and vote that cast their vote through distance communication systems pursuant to the provisions of this Section shall be deemed as present for the purposes of the quorum of the General Meeting of Shareholders in question. Consequently, proxies granted by any shareholder before effecting his/her remote vote, shall be deemed revoked and subsequent proxies granted shall be deemed as not produced.
8. Shareholders attendance whether in person or remotely at the General Meeting of Shareholders shall entail the revocation of the vote cast by post or by e-mail. Votes cast by post or by e-mail shall also be deemed as revoked in the event of a subsequent vote different to that previously cast.
9. Voting system for remote attendees shall be described in the procedure implemented by the board of directors and announced in the notice calling the meeting.

Section 25. Passing of resolutions and publicity of the results

1. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be passed by simple majority of the share capital present or represented at the Meeting, unless otherwise provided by statute or the Articles of Association. Votes shall be by roll-call or by ballot, as determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders itself. In the event of equality of votes, the proposed resolution shall be deemed rejected.
2. Each share gives right to one vote.
3. Without prejudice to the foregoing, shareholders will not be allowed to exercise the voting rights attached to their shares on any resolution with regard to which they are found in a conflict of interest situation, as provided in the applicable regulations, in particular in the cases provided in statute regarding related-party transactions affecting shareholders that need to be approved by the General Meeting, unless the relevant proposed resolution has been approved according to statute.

The shares of any shareholder found in a conflict of interest situation shall be deducted from the share capital for the purposes of determining the majority of votes required in each case.

Section 26. Adjournment of the General Meeting of Shareholders

Once the results of the voting have been announced, the Chair shall adjourn the session.

Section 27. Minute of the Meeting

The notarial record of the minutes shall be deemed to be the official minute of the General Meeting, which needs not be approved by said body.

Part V

Deferral and suspension of the Meeting

Section 28. Deferral

At the suggestion of the Panel or of shareholders representing at least twenty-five (25) percent of the share capital attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, the attendees may resolve to defer the sessions of the General Meeting of Shareholders for one or more straight days.

After deferring the General Meeting of Shareholders, the requirements established by statute, the Articles of Association and these Regulations need not be complied with in subsequent sessions of the General Meeting of Shareholders to consider it validly established.

Only shareholders included in the list of attendees prepared at the beginning of the General Meeting shall have the right to attend and vote in the subsequent sessions to be held as a result of the deferral of the General Meeting of Shareholders pursuant to the provisions of this section. The majorities required to pass the resolutions in the subsequent sessions shall still be determined according to the information arising from the initial list of attendees regardless of the fact that some of the shareholders included in said list may fail to attend those subsequent sessions.

Section 29. Temporary Suspension

As an exception, should there be any incidents that substantially alter the proper conduct of the General Meeting of Shareholders or other extraordinary circumstances that prevent its normal progress, the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders may decide to suspend the session for the time required to re-establish the appropriate conditions for it to be resumed.

In such a case, the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall take the measures they may deem appropriate to ensure the safety of the attendees and avoid the reiteration of the circumstances that caused the suspension

If, once the session resumes, the circumstances that advised the suspension of the meeting persisted, the Panel may propose the deferral of the General Meeting of Shareholders to the following day, in accordance with the provisions set in the previous Section. If the General Meeting of Shareholders should not approve the deferral or should it not be possible to vote the proposal, the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders may proceed to adjourn the meeting.

Part VI

Publicity of the resolutions

Section 30. Publicity of the resolutions

1. Without prejudice to having to register with the Companies Register any resolutions eligible for registration and to all applicable legal provisions on the publicity of corporate resolutions, the full text of the resolutions passed by the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be relayed to CNMV as other relevant information (otra información relevante) on the same day the General Meeting of Shareholders was held or on the first working day immediately after said date, and it shall be posted on CNMV's website. The text of the resolutions shall also be available on the Company's website.

2. Resolutions passed and the result of the votes cast shall be posted on the Company's website within five (5) days of the end of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. Namely, regarding each resolution put to vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders, including supplementary items and alternative motions, as the case may be, at least the number of shares in respect of which votes have been validly cast shall be determined, as well as the percentage such votes represent in the share capital of the Company, and the aggregate number of valid votes cast, the number of votes for, and against each resolution and, where appropriate, the number of abstentions and blank votes.
